Randy Travis, Through The Fire

So many times I've questioned certain circumstances Or things I could not understand Many times in trials, weakness blurs my vision And my frustration gets so out of hand It's then I am reminded I've never been forsaken I've never had to stand the test alone As I look at all the victories, the Spirit rises up in me It's through the fire my weakness is made strong

And He never promised that the cross would not get heavy Or the hill would not be hard to climb He never offered victory without fighting
But He said help would always come in time
Just remember when you're standing in the valley of decision
And the adversary says give in
Just hold on, our Lord will show up
And He will take you through the fire again

I know within myself that I would surely perish But if I trust the hand of God He'll shield the flames again

And He never promised that the cross would not get heavy Or the hill would not be hard to climb He never offered victory without fighting
But He said help would always come in time
Just remember when you're standing in the valley of decision
And the adversary says give in
Just hold on, our Lord will show up
And He will take you through the fire again

Just hold on, our Lord will show up And He will take you through the fire again
