

Randy Travis, Would I

(Mark Winchester)

Would I

Would I

Would I

Would I go out honky tonkin' with you ever night

Dance every dance til I got them all right

Would I do every step the way you thought I should?

If I had you baby maybe yes I would

Would I

Would I wake up every morning,

bring you breakfast in bed

With the right amount of butter on your toasted bread

Would I fix your brunch, lunch and dinner just as good?

If I had you baby maybe yes I would

Well, if I had you, there'd be nothing you could do or say

To ever make me make you go away

Would I

Would I

Would I

Would I cut my hair and change the way I dressed?

Finally get around to cleaning up this mess?

Would I happily give up my batcholorhood?

If I had you baby maybe yes I would

Would I

Would I tear everybody from my little black book

Tell 'em all I was over the urge to look?

Would I marry you then just to make sure they understood?

If I had you baby maybe yes I would

Well, if I had you, there'd be nothing you could do or say

To ever make me make you go away

Would I

Would I

Would I

If I had you baby maybe yes, yes I would
