

Rascal Flatts, Too Good Is True

I guess it's cause and effect
Your heart and mine
The way that we connect
Keeps blowing my mind
There you go again, it never ends
What you do to me

[Chorus]

That I have seen the light of day
Love is finally going my way
Is it too good to be true
Give me one more kiss, one more touch
Baby, I just can't get enough of you
This time, too good is true

All of a sudden
I'm not who I used to be
I had my heart locked
But you held the key
And you find a way, everyday
To show me even more

[Repeat Chorus]

[Bridge]

Some people say we're too good to be true
But they don't get to be loved by you

[Repeat Chorus]

Oh this time, too good is true
Yes it is, yeah
