

Raspberries, I Saw The Light

Old friends, bookends
Solitaire for two
'Til she was leaving
I never really knew

When I looked in her eyes (I saw the light)
I realized (I saw the light)
It was all when I looked in her eyes (I saw the light)
I realized

There's a knock on the door
Then you're home forever more
And now that you're here
There is nothing to fear

[It was all] when I looked in her eyes (I saw the light)
I realized (I saw the light)
