

Rasputina, Transylvanian Concubine

if you want to know how to fly high, then go now to the place where all the concubines meet and converse with them marvel at their pale skin wonder how they chew on their pointy teeth and hair are a beauty they know it's their duty to be countess in their hearts and their minds that have to whisper see in them a sister look into their eyes and you'll be a... transylvanian concubine
you know what flows there like wine stay here with us it's just fine
transylvanian concubine
sorrow is their master cackling with laughter now, he's having just one piece of cakey is their make up catholics try to shake up all the things that form their lives, but they're dead, their sighs, their songs they know what they do is wrong stay here with us it's just time transylvanian concubine
candelabra's lighted satan has been sighted never has there been an evening like this is what they wanted always to fell hunted you can never be too rich or to thin, the blood has run out fangs ruin any cute pout morning has come now they've flown what have you learned from what has been shown?
transylvanian concubine
