

Raul Malo, For You

Cry tears in the dark, where no one can see you
Eyes, fairytale lies, they're all around you
I call out your name
and I, I wait in vain for you

I wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory
The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no other

Be fair, be wise
Leave all your heartaches behind
Someplace, sometime if stardust should fall, you'll be mine

Sigh, fairytale lies, they're all around you
I call out your name
and I, I wait in vain for you

I wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory

The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no other

Be fair, be wise
Leave all your heartaches behind
Someplace, sometime if stardust should fall, you'll be mine

Be fair, be wise
Leave all your heartaches behind
Someplace, sometime if stardust should fall, you'll be mine

I wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory
The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no other

I wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory
The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no other
