

Raul Malo, Secret Heart

Secret heart
What are you made of what are you so afraid of could you it be three simple words or the fear of being overheard
what's wrong
let em'in on your secret heart
Secret heart
why so mysterious why so sacred

maybe you're just acting tough
maybe you're just not man enough
what 's wrong
let em'in on your secret heart
This very secret heart

that you're trying to conceal
is the very same one
That you're dying to reveal go tell her how, how you feel

Secret heart come out and share it
This loneliness, few can bear it Could it have something to do with Admitting that you just can't go through it alone ?
Let em'in on your secret
This very secret
That you're trying to conceal
Is the very same one
Go to tell her how, how you feel
This very secret hart
Go out and share it
This very secret heart
