Raul Midon, If You're Gonna Leave

Maybe Im crazy, I can hear you but you seem for far away
Maybe Im lazy, or maybe we got lost
Somewhere in between the moments
Cant remember when the changes came and made this thing so sad

If youre gonna leave, thats okay
If youre gonna stay, let me say
I wanna get it back the love we had
Before it gets too late
If youre gonna leave, thats okay
If youre gonna stay, let me say
I wanna get it back, the love we had
Before it gets too late, dont let it get too late

Time is illusion
Yesterday can be so far away
Heres to confusion
Or maybe we will find
Somewhere out beyond the stars or in our hearts
There is a method to this madness that pertains.

If youre gonna leave thats okay
If youre gonna stay then let me say
I wanna get it back the love we had
Before it gets too late
If youre gonna leave thats okay
If youre gonna stay then let me say
I wanna get it back the love we had
Before it gets too late

Its getting to the point that Im
I wanna do it right this time
I wanna hold you in my arms
I never wanna say goodbye
Again

If youre gonna leave, thats okay
If youre gonna stay, then let me say
I wanna get it back, the love we had
Before it gets too late
If youre gonna leave then thats okay
If youre gonna stay then let me say
I wanna get it back, the love we had
Before it gets too late, dont let it get too late.
If youre gonna leave, thats okay
If youre gonna stay, then let me say
I wanna get it back, the love we had
Before it gets too late

If youre gonna leave, if youre gonna stay
Before it gets too late

If youre gonna leave, baby wont you stay
I wanna get it back, the love we had
Before it gets too late

If youre gonna leave, thats okay
If youre gonna stay, then let me say
I wanna get it back, the love we had
Before it gets too late,
Dont let it get too late
