

Ray Boltz, Break The Yoke

Break The Yoke

Words and music by Ray Boltz

Standing up on the outside
Falling down within
Looking righteous as a Pharisee
But filled with guilt and sin
Trying to walk with Jesus
On a straight and narrow road
And holding onto this world
I just could not let go
That's such a heavy load

Come and break the yoke, Lord
Come and set this child free
Come tear down the walls of pride
And all I hide beneath
Freedom always came to those
Who received the word You spoke
I received Your word
Break the yoke
I received Your word
Break the yoke

Praying with my brother
Was such a precious time
When I confessed my weaknesses
He joined his hands with mine
And I know something happened
When he prayed with me
The weight of sin fell off
And Jesus set me free

Come and break the yoke, Lord
Come and set Your children free
Come tear down the walls of pride
And false humility
The nail scars
In Your hands and feet
Prove Your love for us is not a joke
Do what you must
But break the yoke
Do what you must
But break the yoke

Now I'm back on my feet again
A new life's begun
Everyday I'm walking with Jesus
But you know there are days
We even run
Set free to serve and worship Him
All the chains He broke
I'll praise His name forever
He broke the yoke
I'll praise Your name forever
You broke the yoke
