

Ray Boltz, I Cry

I Cry

When peace cannot be found and sleep won't visit me tonight a restless mind that I can't tame how off the floor I call Your name sign of silence and the tears begin to fall

and You're the one who hears me calling
I fall
so easily but You're there to catch me
say the words that heal me
I'm safe when I'm with You
You touch my eyes and I can see

Oh the comfort that You bring when nothing else can reach inside sympathetic friends are all around their soothing words fall to the ground in silence I feel You here with me

and You're the one who hears me calling
I fall
say the words that heal me
I'm safe when I'm with You
You touch my eyes and I can see

and You're the one who hears me calling
I fall
so easily but You're there to catch me
say the words that heal me
I'm safe when I'm with You
You touch my eyes and I can see
