

Ray Boltz, Loving Each Other

Loving Each Other

Words and music by Ray Boltz

Your eyes are brown
My eyes are blue
But that doesn't mean
That I can't love you
You've found a place here in my heart
So take my hand and we can start...

CHORUS:

Loving each other, loving the Lord
Serving together in one accord
There's no young or old here
There's no rich or poor
Loving each other, loving the Lord

Your eyes are brown
My eyes are blue
He gave His life for me and for you
We all have a place here in His heart
So give me your hand and we will start...

The colors of the sunset
Of eyes and of skin
They were all created to glorify Him

CHORUS

Your eyes are brown
My eyes are blue
That doesn't mean I can't love you
