

Ray Charles, I Wake Up Crying

I wake up crying
After tossin' and turnin'
And a-yearnin' the whole night long
Pretty baby oh my love since you went away
Haven't spent a happy day

I wake up crying
After sobbin' and sighin'
And a-wonderin' just what went wrong
Pretty baby well I know I was good to you
Why'd you go and make me blue

I need your arms to hold me tight now
I need your lips to kiss me goodnight
I'm so unhappy on my own
Don't don't leave me sad and lonely (oh now now now
,well well well now baby)

I tell you I wake up crying
After tossin' and turnin'
And a-yearnin' the whole night long
Pretty baby why dont you please come back to me
And Save me from this mesery
I want you to save me
Ahhh save me baby
Mhhhhh [Fade]
