Ray Charles, It Never Entered My Mind

Once I laughed when I heard you saying That I'd be playing solitaire Uneasy in my easy chair It never entered my mind And once you told me I was mistaken That I'd awaken with the sun And ordered orange juice for one It never entered my mind You had what I lack, myself Now I even have to scratch my back myself Once you warned me that if you scorned me I'd say a lonely prayer again And wish that you were there again To get into my hair again It never entered my mind Once you warned me that if you scorned me I'd say a lonely prayer again And wish that you were there again To get into my hair again It never entered my mind
