Ray Charles, Tired Of My Tears

Tired of my tears Ray Charles

Girl, you better go back in your mind Try and find yourself a brand new life I love you but you're toying with me So if you can't change, go on, let me be

CHORUS

Well, I'm sick of your lies (sick of your lies) Tired of my tears (tired of my tears) Girl, if you want me, better tell it like it is

Oh, when a boy meets a Girl he likes He starts to dream Before he know it, he's caught buyin' his scheme Now, I used to believe every word you say But realize now, that was yesterday

CHORUS Solo CHORUS

When I'm with you, I lose control That's why I'm offering you my heart and soul You better take it now 'cause when it's gone I won't even answer my telephone

CHORUS (x2)
