Ray J, Let It Go (Part II)

Uh huh, yeah Uh huh, yeah

Come on y'all Don't stop y'all Gotta make y'all rock, y'all Come on y'all Don't stop y'all Stevie gotta make ya rock, y'all

Every now and then it invades my mind Some have missed a place through the hard times From the 9 to 5 or just a world they see But get your boogey shoes, there's a remedy

I insist that you relax and let it go I insist that you believe it's gonna get better I insist you understand right now you can't do nothin' better So let it go

(1) - Everybody's out on the floor don't you know Can't do nothin better so let it go Set your troubles free Dance with me Loose control Let it go

Every now and then it seems hard to find Some have lost their way of loving, peace of mind And if there's any pain or hostility Well get down on the floor cuz there's a remedy

I insist that you be down and ready to party
I insist that you relax and let it go
I insist that you believe it's gonna get better
I insist you understand right now you can't do nothin' better
So let it go

(Repeat 1)

Let it go
Guess it's time to let it go
Even if your feelings show
It's ok to let it go
Guess it's time to let it

A one-two, a one-two, a one-two

Come on y'all Don't stop y'all

(Repeat 1)

Can't do nothin better so let it go

(Repeat 1)

Come on y'all Don't stop y'all Stevie's gotta make ya rock y'all Don't stop y'all

Uh huh, yeah They won't stop y'all Uh huh, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah
