

Ray Price, Gonna Burn Some Bridges

Tonight I'm going out and burn some bridges but only on the road that leads to you
Find a bar and drown a million mem'ries what else is there left for me to do
This time I won't give in and let you put me through Another day for you to play with a heart that worships you
Cause tonight I'm going out and burn some bridges
But only on the road that leads to you
[ steel - strings ]
Cause tonight I'm going out and burn some bridges across crazy river of regret
Find someone who thinks a little of me and maybe somehow then I can forget
This time I won't give in...
