Rose Colored Glasses

A perfect kind of love is what you want from me if I could I'd gladly give you more But I know that I can never paint for you the rosie pictures you are searching for You're wearing rose colored glasses
everywhere you go
Cause you only want to see the brighter sight
You're wearing rose colored glasses
cause someone hurt you so
And rose colored glasses help you hide [steel]
You're wearing rose colored glasses
everywhere you go
Cause you only want to see the brighter side You're wearing rose colored glasses
cause someone hurt you so
And rose colored glasses help you hide
