

Ray Price, Time

Time

Ray Price

Time is a monster that lives in our clocks 55365558910
It's heartless and shows no remorse 810910111098
Consuming our future as we fight 877787665
That hundred year war 56543

Time is a soldier steady and true

Relentlessly trudging along

And time takes no prisoners

Nothing but time marches on

Time is a weapon It's cold and it's cruel 1098108...810987

It knows no religion And plays by no rules 798776910987

Time has no conscience When it's all said and done

Like a beast in the jungle That devours it's young

You can burn up the highway fly like the wind

Run down those long shiny rails

But time's right behind you Like a hound dog

That's hot on your trail

But we're all in the same boat

So just hold on and ride to the end of the line

Time waits for no one everyone runs out of time
