

Ray Price, Who'll Be The First

Everybody told me what a fool I was
To fall in love with someone who would never be true
But someday I would wind up with the hopeless love
All alone be wilted and confused
So who'll be the first to say I told you so
Cause I'm alone like they all said I'd be
Who'll be the first to say I should have listened long ago
So who'll be the first to say I told you so
[ fiddle - steel ]
Filled with love so strong that ruled my heart and soul
Blinded by the lies you kept on tellin' to me
People saw the things you've done and let me know
Things a fool in love can never see
So who'll be the first...
