

Ray Wilson, Wait For Better Days

Lately, you`ve seen the best of me maybe, I`ve nothing left to give time just takes it`s toll life tells you to go love it fades away why? it`s hard to say

Don`t see it as the end it`s the start of something new if a feeling lies within then Keep it close to you allow yourself to be and go at your own place be patient and be true and wait for better days

Sorry, if I don`t share regret I don`t feel it`s all been meaningless people come and go feelings fade and grow
