

RAYE, Hard Out Here

On my way
Figured a way
Figured a way out
My pen is a gun, pen is a gun
I'm finna spray now
He said I was out
Said I was done look at his face now
Tell them boys
Feeling them boys
Meet at the stake house
I been a mess
So I'm in a dress
And I got my cakes out
Sleeping on her, sleeping on me
I'm your face now

What (do) you know about hustling
As a young girl in the dungeons
What you know about making amends
With the devils in your face you must pretend
UHHH

CR0 I'm from ends
But I'm a actor
Smile in your face
All a the pricks, all a the wankas
I had to chill
Smoke it away
Manage my anger

What you know about systems
About drugged drinks, fucking nearly dying from addictions
You start wonder why I'm Christian
Without the lord I'd take my life for all the times I've been a victim

Oooh no weapon formed against me shall ever prosper

All the white men CEO's fuck your privilege
Get your pink chubby hands of my mouth
Fuck you think this is
I told my lawyer stand by (War)
There is no wrath like a woman scorned
Uh now I bet you wish

Baby I bounce
Baby I bounce
Baby I bounce back
The devils a liar
I am the guy, call me the Conrad
I been too nice, triple the price, pay me the whole bag
These motherfuckers cheatin on me
Am I a wag (never again)
Top a the day, Top a the day, Top a the day to you
This LP full a the shit I'm fina say to you
Oooh
See how I flow when I'm in pain, I'm gonna pray for you
Then I'mma aim for you
And it's a shame for you
Shame for you

What you know about violence
I'm on smoke now
Babe I think it's time to cut the violins
Can't see you I'm looking at the inside of my eyelids

I'll never stop fighting
All in God's timing

And I'm about to have these grown men crying
You wasn't trying you was sitting on diamonds
You gon have to see me now
Shining
Hyped up
Blinding
Very fucking frightening
All these lies
Now I see it so clear
See for girls like me from the bottom of the tier
Believe that it's always been
Hard Out Here
