

Raze, Brighter Day

A brighter day, a brighter daaay...

From the lie of illusion
To a moment of bliss
Back to the power of darkness
Into the love of a kiss

CHORUS:

You will always find a new tomorrow
I can show you the eternal way
One step behind you
I've got to find you
And I'm gonna take you to a brighter day

REPEAT

Will there be angels around you?
Will you be dancing with me?
I know a place we can go to
So take the chance to be free

CHORUS

There's a place we can all go free
Cause the Son came down
He was hammered on a tree
Back from darkness that began with a kiss
Then He moved on up to be living in bliss
One step behind you
Now I've gotta find you
Gotta say the truth
Every day I will remind you
Take a moment to consider your illusions
Step on board to see a brighter day
