

Raze, Say The Word

Day after day I wake up with a jump
I grab my shirt, grab my hat and
I take my burnt toast
In my mind everything seems fine
It's alright, it's okay
But somehow I know something's missing
Without your love
Without your peace
It's the same thang
Everybody feels it
Day after day, in every way
I wanna take each step with you

Chorus:

I just say the word and I'm free
Oh I just say the word
And now nothing's missing

Isn't it weird that we say what we say
And we still do what we wanna do
Somehow I gotta find a way
To break through all these selfish tendencies
Without your love
Without your peace
It's still the same ol' thang
Yeah, everybody feels it
Day after day, this I pray
That I take each step with You

Chorus

Say the word and now I'm free
Say the word nothing's missing

(repeat)
