

Razorlight, Action

Well I know a girl
She told me everything she'd done
She said, with these tiny hands
How am I gonna catch some fun?
I said, well all of your words
Everything you do
All of your action
I need it from you

No not really
Cause we just can't do that
We just ain't got the time, time
You just can't give it up
Give it up, give it up, give it up

To look deep in your eyes
To look deep in your eyes
To look deep in your eyes
To look deep in your eyes

You and I, oh what a life
We just talk and talk and talk
Until the end of the night

I said, well all of your words
Everything you do
All of your action
I need it from you

Oh no not really
Cause we just can't do that
Oh, we might as well forget it
If you just can't give it up
Give it up, give it up, give it up

To look deep in your eyes
To look deep in your eyes
To look deep in your eyes
To look deep in your eyes

The night
You
We're
Just satellites

We don't talk
We don't speak
We don't move
When we meet
It's too much
