In this world of make believe
My eyes see what I wanna see
Blinded by the simple lies
So easily I justify
The sin that comes so naturally
Is this all that I'll ever be
Bring this madness to an end
Don't let this cycle start again

It's got me spinnin round and I can hardly tell
Which way is up or down on my sin carousel
It's got me outta control and I wanna jump off
Somebody stop this ride I think I've had enough

Spinnin 'round up and down but I know it's alright
Move ahead fallin' back tryin' to leave it behind
Seems I've been here before so familiar I can tell
Need your help to get off of my sin carousel

It's suffice to say I move
Because of your great fortitude
So unstable are my feet
They love to make a fool of me
Afraid to fall I feel corrupt
And as I drop you pick me up
Take me where I've never been
Don't let this cycle start again

It's got me spinnin round and I can hardly tell
Which way is up or down on my sin carousel
It's got me outta control and I wanna jump off
Somebody stop this ride I think I've had enough

Spinnin 'round up and down but I know it's alright
Move ahead fallin' back tryin' to leave it behind
Seems I've been here before so familiar I can tell
Need your help to get off of my sin carousel
