

Realm, Forever In Love

chorus :
we're braces of life now!
flying heavens above
we have no fear of the light now we're forever in love

seems like celebrations voices lifted up in grace feels like jubilation haven't dreamed of better days we've got stars in our eyes and the world in our hands and it feels like we're coming home

chorus x2

the story is beginning let it spark the word to flame like the midnight somewhere burning as we shine again

we've got time on our side as we dance through the dawn

yeh, yeh, yeh, yeh, yeh forever

for always together
forever in love

chorus x4
