

Reamonn, Head In My Hands

Crouched in my room
it happened to soon
I know
Insults were thrown you think that you'd grown by now
Feelings inside
start to subside
and grow
Where are you now
Where are you now
let me know
You got your head in your hands stop screaming
stop screaming
Cause the world wakes up
and it pulls you in
you can do no wrong
it's loving you still It's loving you still Where are you now
where are you now
tell me
Are you scratching your eyes are you torn up inside
tell me
Did your walls tumble down did they push you around to much
have you nothing to say are you running away from the touch
You got your head in your hands
stop screaming
You got your head in your hands
stop screaming
stop screaming
and it pulls you in
it's loving you still It's loving you still
loving you still
loving you still
It's loving you Yeah the world wakes up
I wish the world wakes up
loving you
