

Reamonn, Josephine

When you're here,
every thought I ever had,
becomes clear,
But when you're far,
the only light I ever see,
is the stars
And when you go,
the feelings burn,
as they grow Cause to me,
to me you're beautiful
But when you're here Josephine, the stars don't shine so bright
But yeah with me, Josephine, you'd never sleep at night (x2)
But when you go I never sleep as I do
And in my dreams,
I hold you like I never will release
But when you're here Josephine, the stars don't shine so bright
But yeah with me Josephine you'd never sleep at night (x2)
My Josephine
I'm dreaming of you
you dreaming it too
I'm dreaming of you
I scream your name
My Josephine
when you're here Josephine the stars don't shine so bright
But yeah with me Josephine you'd never sleep at night (x2)
My Josephine
I'm dreaming of you
Are you dreaming it too
I'm dreaming of you
I scream your name
