

Reamonn, Streetwalker

Everyday I know where streets is turned Moving to the way of eyes that burned
Don't stop, don't talk head down dont let them see Hands in chains holding the key cause you're oh oh oh so strong
Yeah you're oh oh oh so strong

(Chorus)

Everytime you're falling down
You're picking yourself back on the ground
And everytime you're pushed away
No streetwalker's here today
No streetwalker's here today

How can I hold back this world you bare cause words are not enough to show we care
But I can't stop can't talk head down can't let you see
The chains that hold you also hold me
And you're oh oh oh so strong
Yeah you're oh oh oh so strong

(Chorus)

Everytime you're falling down
You're picking yourself back on the ground
And everytime you're pushed away
No streetwalker's here today
No streetwalker's here today

And a streetwalker's here today...
They're picking you up
But they're bringing you down...
