

Reamonn, Waiting There For You

Did they let you go or are you running still from them
or are you just mesmerised by the way it is Did you see your dream fade before your eyes are you still reaching out can you hear me scream
Can you hear me scream
Hear me scream
I waiting there for you
I waiting there for you
But there is nothing I can do
But there is nothing I can do
Did you see my face Stuck here in the crowd Could you see me cry when you turned away Did you see the tears rolling down my face Could you feel my pain and did you hear me scream Did you here me scream
Here me scream
I waiting there for you
I waiting there for you
But there is nothing I can do
But there is nothing I can do
I waiting there for you
I waiting there for you
But there is nothing I can do
But there is nothing I can do
