

Reason To Believe, Again And Again

There's something out there stopping me from having fun
I'm someone that disagrees with what is going on
Instead of simply trying to just work things out
Innocent people end up dropping out the scene
Again and again
We see it happen
The bigger they are, the harder they're supposed to fall
You want to tell them what you think of them
But words are just too small
I know I'm not the only one who feels this way
I know this isn't the first time someone stood up to say
It's hard when you feel alone and fear is holding you back
From telling some fking asshole that you don't like the way that he acts
