Reason To Believe, Settled Thru

Walking down the hall, we walked right by When I look back and so do you I know I've seen your face before I knew I've seen your face before There's a feeling settled through Up until the night I feel this way When I go back, I see that you're not there When I don't see anyone, I sense despair I know I've seen your face before I know I've seen your face before There's a feeling settled through When I go back and you're not there I see no one, I sense despair Retrace my steps, nothing I can do There's a feeling settled through