

Reba McEntire, I'd Say You

If I had to say what love feels like
I'd say you
If I had to say what love tastes like
I'd say you
If I had to show what love looks like
That's an easy thing to do
I'd pick your favorite colors
And honey I'd paint you

If someone asked what heaven is
I'd say you
If I describe what pleasure is
I'd say you
If I had to show what a dream looks like
That's an easy thing to do
I'd pick your favorite colors
And honey I'd paint you

In Webster's book
I'd even add a word or two
Under perfect lover
I'd put see you

If I had to show my biggest thrill
That's an easy thing to do
I'd pick your favorite colors
And honey I'd paint you

I'd say you
I'd say you

If I had to show what love looks like
That's an easy thing to do
I'd pick your favorite colors
And honey I'd paint you
