

Reba McEntire, It's Another Silent Night

Silence is golden
When the one that you're holding
Means more than love words can say
But what I don't hear
From you makes me fear
That our love is slipping away

The quiet's so loud
It fills up the house
With words that can't be set free
So who'll break the curse
And say the first word
Well I don't know
We're not talking you see

Chorus:
It's another silent night
It's a cold war of who's wrong or right
Nobody's winning this unspoken fight
It's another silent night

If we could just talk
And tear down the wall
That stands there between our hearts
We could put back together
Our love for each other
Before it all falls apart

Repeat Chorus x2
