

Rebecca Lavelle, Charlotte

This is your home
and always will be
you take it with you
when you go
and we'll be here
and you belong
it's important that you know Know we love you know you're precious one day soon you'll understand not today
and not tomorrow
but you will know, you'll know in time You'll understand
Go with our blessing
hurry back
there'll be such joy when you return yes we'll be here
we'll always love you
that's all you need to know Yes we love you
hold the feeling
when you have the words to say
you'll understand
before tomorrow that this had to be the way You'll understand
