

Rebecca Lavelle, Take The Rain Away

Take The Rain Away
By Rebecca Lavelle

Give me confirmation
Let me walk out of the storm
Don't wanna live in darkness
Oh let me be transformed
Let me find redemption
Oh please let there be peace
Make the trouble go away
Oh make the yearning cease

Take the rain away
Take the rain away
Give me hope
Give me love
Make it sweet from above

Take the rain away
Oh take the rain away
Give me praise
Give me heart
Take the rain away

Oh give me back the courage
And give me back the faith
To believe is more than this
Let me control my fate

Take the rain away
Take the rain away
Give me hope
Give me love
Make it sweet from above

Take the rain away
Oh take the rain away
Give me praise
Give me heart
Take the rain away

Some things are eternal
Some things pass away
But the light which comes
When the night is gone
Is not just called the day
Sometimes pain is useless
Sometimes pain is brief
But the fragile hope
That delays the loss
Is another word for peace

Take the rain away
Take the rain away
Give me hope
Give me love

Take the rain away
Oh take the rain away
Give me praise
Give me heart
Take the rain away

Take the rain away
