

Rebecca Lynn Howard, Beautiful To You

(Rebecca Lynn Howard/Trey Bruce)

I don't have to turn the head of everyone I see

I don't have to live inside a mirror

I don't get upset and freak

Or let it bother me

If I don't walk and look just like a picture

When you tell me that you love me

You make me feel pretty

Extraordinary or just forgettable

Very ordinary or irresistible

I don't have to be anything at all

As long as I'm,beautiful to you

Beautiful to you

One look from you is worth at least a thousand words

But I can't think of one you leave me speechless

I'm satisfied to be the queen

Of your whole world

The fall that takes your breath when you are dreamin'

When you tell me that you love me

You make me feel pretty

Extraordinary or just forgettable

Very ordinary or irresistible

I don't have to be anything at all

As long as I'm,beautiful to you

Beautiful to you

I'm satisfied to be the queen of your world

Extraordinary or just forgettable

Very ordinary or irresistible

I don't have to be anything at all

As long as I'm,beautiful to you

Beautiful to you
