

Rebecca Lynn Howard, Wrong Mr. Right Again

I've had a dream come true
but it all fell through when I lost him.
Then I fell like a fool
for a fast talker down in Austin.
I thought I found a love that was made for me,
but he didn't even make a good memory.

I got the wrong Mr Right again.
I got the wrong Mr Right again.

Its getting harder and harder for a woman to find a good man.
I find my looking for love had finally come to an end,
But now I'm looking at another broken heart to mend.
I got the wrong Mr Right again.

It was love at first sight,
you were everything I had ever wanted.
Until I found out all about your other woman.
Looks like the more I learn
the less I know about men.
If I ain't fallin out I'm fallin in.

I got the wrong Mr Right again.
I got the wrong Mr Right again.

Its getting harder and harder for a woman to find a good man.
I find my looking for love had finally come to an end.
But now I'm looking at another broken heart to mend.
I got the wrong Mr Right again.
I got the wrong Mr Right again.
