

Rebecca St. James, Beautiful Stranger

[Verse 1]

"Do you see me?"
The question's in her eyes
"Do you relate,
To the pain I can't disguise?"
On look beyond what you see
The outside is not all there is

[Refrain]

Will you tell me now when did I see
You in need of water
Oh and tell me now when did I see you
Hungary on the streets
God I hear you calling out to me
In the voices of my used to be's
Calling me to reach beyond my world
To this beautiful stranger
Beautiful stranger

[Verse 2]

He does not look like everyone else
And has not hidden anywhere I know
You ask me to be your hands and
Show him now that he is loved

[Refrain]

Tell me now when did I see
You in need of water
Oh and tell me now when did I see you

Hungary on the streets
God I hear you calling out to me
In the voices of my used to be's
Calling me to reach beyond my world

[Bridge]

This beauty that lies deep within
Waiting to be discovered
God help me see what you see
And turn it into stone

Tell me now when did I see
You in need of water
Tell me now when did I see you
Hungary on the streets
God I hear you callin' out to me
In the voices of my used to be's
Callin' me to reach beyond my world

Won't you tell me now when did I see
You in need of water
Oh, and tell me now when did I see you
Hungary on the streets
God I hear you callin' out to me
In the voices of my used to be's
Callin' me to reach beyond my world
To this beautiful stranger
