

Rebecca Zadig, Goodbye

It's the same story
Nothing new
As the day falls into the night
As the wind blows so the time goes
No where to run
No where to hide
I thought I was too young to love
We don't know if this can go on
It is too late to say goodbye
Though we can't say we never tried
So many words we want to say
But we wait for another day
We can make it last forever
It's a chance to stay together
I see myself and where I am
Will you take me just as I am
Feelings that are so hard to hide
Kiss the pain with your lips goodbye
Ha ah ah ah ah aha ah ahahaha
I dont want no conversation
When talking on solution
Life is so strange when you are young
Something so right
Can turn so wrong
Goodbye
