

Rebolt, My Generator

It was a ten feet fall
You know I lost it all
You're my generator

No doubt I paid the cost
When they said I was lost
You're my generator

My Generator
Oh oh
My my generator
Oh oh
My my generator

Searching stone for stone
I was all alone
You're my generator

Behind that golden gate
There was so much at stake
You're my generator

My Generator
Oh oh
My my generator
Oh oh
My my generator

Did it cross your mind
You were not inclined
To be my generator

It's not a waste of time
I could be committing a crime
You're my generator

My Generator
Oh oh
My my generator
Oh oh
My my generator
