Reckless Kelly, Baby's Gone Blues

My baby says she's goin',
gonna go,
gonna leave me on my own Yeah my baby says she's goin',
gonna go,
gonna leave me on my own Yeah but she's been talkin' like she's gonna be walkin' since the day that I brought her home Now my baby says she's goin,
gonna go,
gonna leave me on my own

My baby said we're through,
don't know what to do,
you know it's really up to you Yeah my baby said we're through,
don't know what to do,
you know it's really up to you Baby said you gotta sure love me right or I'm goin'-a leave you lonely and blue Now my baby said we're through,
don't know what to do,
you know it's really up to you

Can't believe she's gone, baby said goodbye,
and tore apart our happy home
No I can't believe she's gone,
baby said goodbye,
and tore apart our happy home I'm just sittin' around countin' those teardrops fall from my eyes all alone No I can't believe she's gone,
baby said goodbye,
and tore apart our happy little home

Yeah my baby says she's goin',
gonna go,
gonna leave me on my own Yeah my baby says she's goin',
gonna go,
gonna leave me on my own Yeah but she's been talkin' like she's gonna be walkin' since the day that I brought that little girl home My baby says she's goin',
gonna go,
gonna leave me on my own

On my own
On my own
Baby's gone. . .

(Hey!)
