

Red Box, Walk Walk

in and out of
hallelujah!
this heat is turning my skin to leather

no ground given
hallelujah!
both young and old we will run together

walk walk
break into a run
the race has just begun we sing and dance and we kiss each other

hallelujah!
project my power into one direction

i kick, you kick
hallelujah!
my inner rhythm will reach perfection

your spirit is broken and pride hides the pain
honour your labour
again move mountains
