

Red Bridge, It boggles my mind

Hey you! Why dont you use this thing above your eyebrow hide in your skull
Hey you! Dont you see how many people make a laughing of you
Hey you! Youve always thought youd better than the average man in the street
And I say fool go back where youre from, nobody wants to look on your face
How come theres so many strangers who can easily commit a crime and kill
If you want Im standing right here waiting for some challenge you cowardly bug
And I say you weve got to stop this dangerous and flammable game we play
And I say fool go back where youre from, nobody wants to look on you
You think that you are so cool
But its not for gods sake
Whatever you want
It boggles my mind and its hard
For me to know
Wherever you go
There will be someone
Waiting for you
How come theres so many strangers who can easily commit a crime and kill
Im standing right here waiting for some challenge cowardly bug
Tell me what you want for being
I am curious and Im looking for you
And it doesnt really matter and it wouldnt take so long
When you gone when you gone!!!
Whatever you want
It boggles my mind and its hard
For me to know
Wherever you go
There will be someone
Waiting for you
