Hold my eyes just for a moment
see the world in the way I do Burn away the fears you keep inside and try to open up all the gates

Hold your breath just for a moment swear you'll never hesitate
I wish to vanish together with your kiss so wherever I go I will taste you

Moving in slowly
Crawl over me
Touch me all over
Make us disappear

Skin to skin
Will lose or win
Invite me in Satisfaction and sin

We could be heroes
We could be falling
We could be gods
without this crawling

Here I stand, waiting for your signal
Here I lay, waiting for your clothes to fall
This naked smell will forever caress us
Let my tongue always be your guard

Moving in slowly
Crawl over me
Touch me all over
Make us disappear

Skin to skin
Will lose or win
Invite me in
Satisfaction and sin

We could be heroes
We could be falling
We could be gods
without this crawling
