

Red Delicious, Nocturne

Daylight fades, my love
Static hums but you can't hear it where you are You're disconnected
This is my only song
I'll sing it soft to you tonight and hope you hear
Hear me and answer

If I give, will you receive?
Will you be true if I believe?
You're far away but you are never out of reach

Be real, my love
Be here for me
And I'll never ask anything but this from you

Darkness falls, my love
Night surrounds me, thick and close, it holds me in Isolates me
This is my only song
My solitary cry for you to let me in
Without hesitation

I fall a thousand steps behind
If I look back I will go blind
You're out of sight but you are never out of mind

Be real, my love
Be here for me
And I'll never ask anything but this from you
Be whole, my love
Be real for me
And I'll never be anything but real for you

If I give, will you receive?
Will you be true if I believe?
You're far away but you are never out of reach

Be real, my love
Be here for me
And I'll never ask anything but this from you
Be whole, my love
Be real for me
And I'll never be anything but real for you
