

Red Hot Chili Peppers, She's a Lover

The flower's pink on the tree
But if you pick it to see
Will it be wild and free
You say you wanted a piece
Is it for sale or for lease
Oh that's the easy police
Come on down

Outside the world within ya
Bend to the Woolf Virginia
Take to the bridge that's under
Hunt for the sun to wonder

Whatcha wanna do today
I'm your favorite kid, let's play
Dedicated to the ones we serve
She's so full of learning curves

I, oh, I

She's a lover
She's a lover
She's a lover
She's a lover

Love me, love me
Wake up and hug me
I will be a torrid beast

Well if you need me, need me
Wake up and squeeze me
Nothing but a sweet relief

I, oh, I

And when I'm falling asleep
Please give me something to keep
Me warm and kind of complete

Long time to go without ya
Try slow to know about ya
For now is my better
Less time in forever

Please love can I have a taste
I just want to lick your face
Any other day and I would say
You're Atlantis manta ray

She's a lover
She's a lover
She's a lover
She's a lover
She's a lover, unlimited love again
Gotta love her, unlimited love again
She's a lover, unlimited love again
Little lover, unlimited love again

Love me, love me
Wake up and hug me

Well if you need me, need me

Nothing but a sweet relief

Love me, love me
Wake up and hug me

Well if you need me, need me

Nothing but a sweet relief

I will be a torrid beast
I will be a torrid beast
I will be a torrid beast
