

Red Lorry Yellow Lorry, Temptation

You could find ambition
You could see it in my dreams
Is what you wish for so desperately

To find your temptation
All your secrecy
You'll find you're looking sideways
Sideways to see

Cuts the air like a whisper
I hear and don't obey
What's on your horizon
You gaze at day by day
To arrive at nowhere so pleased to see
Just hope for someone who'd like maybe

To find your temptation
All your secrecy
To find your temptation
All your secrecy
You'll find you're looking sideways
Sideways to see
Sideways to see

You could find ambition
You could see it in my dreams
Is what you wish for so desperately
To find your temptation
All your secrecy
You'll find you're looking sideways,
Sideways to see
