

Red Shaded, Found Someone

(verse)

Didn't I swear I'd be there
Didn't I make you this promise
To hold you tight forever and ever

(pre chorus)

Yet I fell apart
And my world crashed down
I was sinkin' fast, until I felt true love
Oh yeah

(Chorus)

All night, all day
I feel your touch
I feel your love
It's your love that makes it right
All night, all day
I feel your touch
I feel your love
It's your love that holds me tight

(verse)

Didn't He come to save us
Didn't He come to tell us
Of true love
Forever and ever

(Bridge)

Yet He fell apart on the cross He bore
True love he gave
So I could say, oh yeah
