

Red Sovine, I'm The Man

Good evening young man do you know who I am
From the look on your face I think you may
You know my wife much too well you've made my life a living hell
Now I'm the man who comes to stand in your way
All the blame is not on you this kinda game always takes two
But God helps us if you don't hear what I say this very day
I don't like your cheatin' plans you'd better listen while you can
Cause I'm the man who comes to stand in your way

[guitar + harmonica]

I must have failed her somehow but I won't fail her now
All that matters is that she's come back to stay
So young man I beg of you don't make me do what I can't to do
Cause I'm the man who comes to stand in your way
I'm gonna keep her no matter what she's my wife she's all I've got
And before I lose her love I'll see you kid and laid away
So I'm warnin' you young man but I won't warn you again
Cause I'm the man who comes to stand in your way
